

Pronoun Case: Answer Key

The following sentences are correct as written.

1. Josh and he met on Saturday to work on their plans for the campaign.
2. The judges gave both Robert and me a trophy since we tied for first place.
3. Should Marie and she expect to see you at the game?
4. Both he and his sister graduated from Delta State University.
5. The instructor told Paul and me to do more extensive research on our topics.
6. Allen went to a Saints' game with my brother and me.
7. Stacy and they are coming over to watch movies tonight.
8. My father and I have a good relationship even though he is strict.
9. From the top of the mountain, Nancy and I could see the village.
10. Between you and me, Mrs. Woods is not a very good cook.
11. If you and I work together, we can finish more quickly.
12. Ellen is such a good tutor that the children never want anyone but her.
13. The old woman down the street promised Allison and me five dollars apiece if we would rake her yard.
14. The lifeguard told my cousin and me to quit clowning around.
15. The committee chose him and her to serve as co-chairpersons.

Pronouns Ending in –Self: Answer Key

The following sentences are correct as written.

1. Jonathan and I will pick you up at the airport this evening.
2. I had told myself that I would be careful, but I became distracted by the radio.
3. We all gave ourselves a pat on the back when the performance was over.
4. They themselves will do the carpentry work because they do not trust anyone else to do the job right.
5. Mark and he will cook supper for the entire team.
6. He himself will deliver the package.
7. We hurt only ourselves when we do less than our best.
8. Do you want to join Rob and me for dinner this evening?
9. Matt cheated himself by quitting the team.
10. She gave herself permission to go off her diet, but she still felt guilty.

Other Pronoun Rules: Answer Key

Exercise One: The sentences below are correct as written.

1. Bess did not sell as many subscriptions as I.
2. It was probably he who caused the accident.
3. She gave us girls the responsibility for collecting the money.
4. The co-chairmen, Frederick and I could not agree.
5. I know that we will work harder than they.
6. Had it been she, I would have understood.
7. We athletes understand the value of eating right and exercising.
8. Trophies were given to the top golfers, Max and me.
9. My little brother is short, but he weighs more than I.
10. I can drive as well as he, but I'm just a little careless.

Exercise Two: The sentences below are correct as written.

1. No one except him and Bernice went to the party.
2. Although he and Carrie took their coats, they did not wear them.
3. The class chose him and her to go to Washington for the inauguration.
4. I did not know about his going to college at Ole Miss.
5. He is as smart as she.
6. This is she, my cousin who works for the college.
7. The winners, Billy and I, will receive a savings bond.
8. All but him and Thomas have completed the CPA preparation exam.
9. Mother said it was she who bought the last armchair.
10. Among us boys competition is fierce.
11. Mother doubted the wisdom of our staying out late on a school night.
12. Your studying for the test all week was a very wise idea.
13. It was he who was upset over the new tax laws.
14. The teacher said this book must be yours.
15. Tyler told Chris and him about his camping trip.

Using Who and *Whom
Answer Key

The following sentences have been written correctly.

1. I know whom you should ask to coordinate the service project.
2. We appointed only those who we knew would do an excellent job.
3. That is the girl who bought my mom's old van.
4. Who played the violin solo in the Christmas concert?
5. With whom was she speaking?
6. People who bring joy into the lives of others cannot keep it from themselves.
7. The artist whom I was talking about is my cousin.
8. The technician who repaired the computers was intelligent and efficient.
9. Who is the woman sitting beside your mother?
10. The man whom the police arrested was not the man who robbed the bank.
11. To whom did you send the flowers?
12. The guitar player whom you met at the party is well-known throughout the state.
13. Whom do most students believe to be the best contemporary novelist?
14. Whom did the Student Government Association choose as president?
15. The people who had waited in line for hours were growing restless and angry.

Exercise 2

1. You may give that book to whoever wants it.
2. You may invite whomever you choose to the party.
3. I think that whoever takes this course will become a better writer.
4. Do you realize that whoever is elected president of the Student Government Association will have to make a speech in front of the faculty?

5. Whoever you select to serve on the committee will have a huge responsibility.
6. The criminal, whoever he is, ought to pay for his crime.
7. Give the keys to whoever knows the password.
8. Whoever installed the printer didn't check to see that it was working properly.